

Superior Court of Arizona
Maricopa County

Senior Law Researcher

$56,950 - $68,078

Open Until Filled

First Review of Applicants March 18, 2010

The Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County, the 5th largest general jurisdiction Court system in the nation, seeks a Senior Law Researcher. This position provides specialized legal assistance and research to the Criminal Department Presiding Judge, the Rule 32 Management Unit Judge, and other judicial officers in the criminal department in all cases from the first stage through trial, sentencing and post-conviction proceedings. The Senior Law Researcher is primarily responsible for reviewing post-conviction relief matters and other motions, responding to research requests from judicial officers, and drafting legal memoranda and proposed orders. He or she is also responsible for alerting judges to new judicial opinions and other issues that impact the criminal proceedings.

Position qualifications include graduation from an academically accredited School of Law and a member of the Arizona State Bar and one year of work experience in a law researcher capacity. Criminal trial or appellate experience preferred.

Our comprehensive benefits package includes medical/dental/vision, up to 23-vacation days/year and 11 paid holidays. This is an unclassified position and not covered by the Judicial Merit Rules.
